Details:

- Fees are due before the time of service. The fertility educator will send an invoice 24 hours in advance and if not paid at the beginning of the appointment, cash or a card will need to be processed at that time. A late charge of $5.00 will be added unless arrangements have been made in advance.
- 24 hour notification is required to change or cancel follow up appointments otherwise a $15.00 fee shall be assessed.
- Method effectiveness includes keeping to scheduled follow up routine.
- Scholarships may be available for those that find the fees burdensome and can be applied for by asking your fertility educator for the application.

I have read the fee sheet and understand its contents and discussed this with my fertility educator.
